

SOCIAL AND CULTURAL STUDIES CERTIFICATE

Students who earn a Certificate in Social and Cultural Studies will have successfully completed six courses from at least three disciplinary approaches (history, philosophy, sociology).

NOTE: This certificate is not a credential for teacher certification/licensure.

Admission Requirements

See the Admission Criteria section of this catalog for more information.

Course Requirements

Social and Cultural Studies		Hours
Core Coursework		6
BEF 667	Multicult Soc Ed Leadershp
BEF 681	Ethics And Education
Elective Coursework		12
BEF 607	Readings In Soc Of Ed
BEF 640	Studies History Of Education
BEF 641	Studies Social Foundatn Eductn
BEF 642	Studies Philosophy Education
BEF 644	Phil Science Rel Ed Res
BEF 650	Critical Race Theory In Educ
BEF 653	Studies in Higher Ed History
BEF 654	Phil & Amer Higher Ed
AEL 669	Curriculum Study Schoolg
Total Hours		18

Students may include one Masters level course as an elective toward the certificate, including BEF 504 Philosophy Of Educ, BEF 575 Found Educn Through Film, and BEF 585 Language Politics & Education.

In consultation with the Program Coordinator, students may choose up to two elective courses from related fields outside the department or College. Students in the College of Education may count courses named here and used also for the college foundations requirement toward the certificate.