Fine Arts, Humanities

JCM146 Introduction to Sports Communication

Hours 3

This course serves as a foundation to the study and analysis of sports media and provides an overview of professional pathways.

JCM180 Journalistic Principles and Practices

Hours 3

This introductory survey course gives students a first look at the history and professional practices of journalism and electronic news by examining both legacy and contemporary media.

JCM200 Foundations for Journalism Practices

HU

Hours 3

JCM 200 is a survey of how the practices of journalism and news work in the context of a humanities course. Students should be able to deconstruct various stories in the news media to understand how economic, social, and ethical principles affect news reporting. In addition, the class covers the ethical and legal principles that guide journalists and the historical context in which the journalism evolved as a key player in democratic societies.

Humanities

JCM201 Introduction to Media Production

Hours 3

This course introduces students to the theories, concepts and techniques of professional video production and post-production, as well as the fundamentals, history and evolution of the visual language of the moving image. Topics include camera operation and technique, lighting design, sound recording, video editing, story development, and the ethical principles behind producing digital media. In this hands-on course, students will produce short video projects that emphasize visual storytelling, technical proficiency and creative authorship, while learning to critique their own and their peers work with a critical eye.

Prerequisite(s): JCM 100 and JCM 102

JCM202 Introduction to Post Production

C

Hours 3

This course introduces students to the theories and techniques of digital video and computer based post-production. Students will learn the ins and outs of the Adobe Premiere editing system, focusing on media management, efficient editing practices, sound and image manipulation, codec preferences and conversion, and exporting/uploading files to the web. This will primarily be a technical class, focusing on proficiency with the Adobe Premiere application, however the course also covers fundamental editing theory, the evolution of the medium and its impact on the editing craft, and key editing terminology and techniques. Projects will include both scripted and non-fiction material. Required reading will be accompanied by required viewing, in addition to practical editing assignments. Course instruction will only consider the Mac OS platform, however, the Adobe Premiere application is very similar for Windows PC's. This course assumes a basic working knowledge of the Mac OS, including how digital files are transferred and the basic language associated with using the Mac interface. Computing proficiency is required for a passing grade in this course.

Computer Science

JCM212 Film and Media Theory

Hours 3

Film and Media Theory introduces JCM students to a variety of critical cultural humanistic methods and approaches to evaluating film, television, and emerging media.

JCM235 Social Media and Society

HU

Hours 3

This course provides a deep dive into the platforms, structures, cultures, and practices of the social media era, and it emphasizes the processes and practices of news and creative media industries and audiences, including the values, ethics, and aesthetics of the contemporary media environment. Social media are ubiquitous in our everyday lives, but now, more than ever, it is important to think critically about the ways they shape our media use, social interactions, and perceptions of the world around us. The course is divided into three parts: media industries, social audiences, and cultural trends. In the first part of the course, we'll take a close look at the practices, values, and ethics of platforms and media professionals. In the second part of the course, we'll examine social media audiences, with an eye toward developing a critical understanding of the media environment around us. Finally, the third part of the course will bring you up to speed on some ongoing cultural trends involving social media.
